

Colesbourne Park

Snowdrop Study Day

Meet other enthusiasts, learn more about snowdrops and their companion plants in the winter garden from experts and enjoy a private viewing of the Colesbourne snowdrop collection.

Tuesday 11th February 2025

10.30 am – 3.30 pm

- | | |
|----------|---|
| 10.30 am | Assemble for coffee at Colesbourne Park (entrance via Gulf filling station on A435). Sales table open. |
| 11.00 am | Talk: Val Bourne, an award winning garden writer and hands on Galanthophile - "My Spring Cottage Garden" |
| 12.00 pm | Tour of the Garden with Katie Reynolds, Head Gardener and Sir Henry Elwes |
| 1.00 pm | Lunch break: please bring your own refreshments or order at the nearby Colesbourne Inn. |
| 2.15 pm | Talk: Susan Alexander, a well known author who has lectured widely throughout Europe on British naturalists - "The Rugged Life of a Victorian Plant Collector" |
| 3.00 pm | Question and Answer session with Chair Sir Henry Elwes, Val Bourne and Susan Alexander |
| 3.30 pm | Tea and biscuits. Sales table open. |

Numbers are strictly limited to 35 participants. Cost £50 per person.

For further information or to book a place please contact:

Email: hwg@colesbourne.net

Telephone: 01242 870264

Website: www.colesbournegardens.org.uk